One Solution Of It.

The New York Tribune offers a simple solution of the financial problem that the Democratic administration and Congress are struggling with. It is, in fact, so simple in its nature that even the incompetents enthroned in Washington ought to be able to understand and appreciate it. The Tribune says:

"If our Democratic friends want to protect the public credit, and to do something sensible, they will drop all idea of retiring greenbacks which the people do not want retired, and all idea of enlarging the currency, which is larger already by many millions than the business of the country requires, and will offer a bill with two simple provisions:

1. Providing for a popular loan to meet any needs of the treasury.
2. Providing for a deficiency of revenue by additional taxation.

This would be the quickest way out of the dilemma, if not the best way. People will differ regarding the merits of the suggestion, but all must agree that it would afford relief to the treasury and the aching heads of the profound statesmen at Washington, who are inviting insanity by laying awake all night, hatching complicated currency schemes. The Tribune urges that the two things it suggests will have to be done, unless the Democratic party is ready to turn over a bankrupt government to Republicans on the 4th of March. It is for the Democratic Congress to say, the Tribune says, if it insists on making laws at all, after the crushing defeat, what increase of taxation shall be preferred. The additional tax on beer would probably be less objectionable than any other, but that is their business. The absolute necessity for additional taxation they cannot deny or ignore.

A point not to be overlooked is that the increased tax is necessary to make the bonds sell well, for it stands to reason that nobody, not even our own citizens, will want to lend money to a government that isn't raising enough money from its regular income to pay its running expenses. "People," says our contemporary, "lend sometimes to those who are unfortunate, but show a willingness to pay according to their means. They do not often lend to people who have unlimited ability to pay, but who cut down their government revenue so far that the country becomes bankrupt."

Here is a whole tariff argument in a nutshell. It is the Democratic tariff policy that has brought about the whole difficulty. But for the free trade programme the administration would now be raising the necessary revenues by a tariff, or "tax," if you please, which would not be felt by the people. The policy of the Democratic party, in fact, impoverishes the people and the treasury at the same time, and imposes upon the people taxes that they do feel. The people are realizing these things more and more, and more than ever they are repenting their mistake of November, 1892.

SENATOR-ELECT CARTER, of Montana, was born in Ohio. The Ohio man can't be kept down. He seems to grow well on any kind of soil.

A Campaign Incident.

Register (addressing the populace)—Fellow citizens: The city government, as you all know, has been for years in the hands of the Democratic party, and has proven a valuable party machine for use in past elections. This is all wrong. Party politics should have nothing to do with the city affairs. Let us, therefore, show our abhorrence of partisan politics, by voting to retain the whole Democratic police force, and, in fact, electing the straight Democratic ticket. The way to secure a change in this matter is to vote solidly against a change!

Democratic Bonoos (enthusiastically)—Hear! hear! [Great applause by the city hall contingent.]

SPEAKING of the proposed increase of the beer tax the Richmond Dispatch remarks: "The consumer will unquestionably have to pay this tax." Not so. Beer will still be sold for 5 cents a glass and the tax will be paid by the brewer or the retailer. If by the latter, however, he would possibly get even by serving smaller glasses. Only in such an event would the consumer be affected. He would drink less beer, perhaps, but he would be no worse off for that.

Wool Growers and Free Wool.

The wool growers of the country have an abiding faith that "truth crushed to earth will rise again," and believe that justice will yet be done them by the return to power of the party of protection in 1896. With this expectation they are largely in favor of maintaining the numbers of sheep adopted for breeding purposes, even at a loss, so as to be ready for the overthrow of free wool.

At Columbus, on Thursday, the Ohio Wool Growers' Association adopted a resolution in line with this policy, and had much more to say regarding the Democratic wrecking of the great American wool growing industry. They declared that the free wool provision in the Wilson-Gorman-Brice tariff act is a colossal political crime against the industries of the American people, and an odious, unjust discrimination against wool-growers. The resolutions conclude as follows:

In view of the vast increase of sheep in foreign countries and the consequent reduction in the price of wool, we demand such enlarged protection as recent conditions require over that given by any previous legislation. To secure this object, all agriculturists should demand a fair share of representation in all political conventions, and by vote and other legitimate methods oppose the nomination or election of any candidate for political office who will not favor protection for sheep husbandry as ample as that accorded any other industry. We especially recommend to wool growers to maintain and increase the number of sheep adapted for breeding purposes notwithstanding the failure to realize profit therefrom, but in order to be ready for the overthrow of free wool and its political advocates in 1896.

The wool-growers have realized fully the failure of free trader's prophecies regarding the effects of the carrying out of the pet free wool theory, and are ready to vote, to a man, to undo the great wrong. The assault on the wool industry by the Democratic party was little short of malicious. The woolmen will have their inning in November, 1896.

To the esteemed Register: Don't get excited. The Republicans are not going to do anything revolutionary at Charleston. They made the loyal state of West Virginia at a time when the Democratic party of the south was engaged in the attempt to destroy the Union, and they still have its best interests at heart. Follow the example of your level-headed Democratic governor, and don't permit your partisan hatred to dictate your editorials.

In 1884 Grover Cleveland was elected to the presidency on the cry that the Republicans had piled up an enormous surplus in the treasury which should be distributed among the people. Mr. Cleveland is half through his second term, the surplus has disappeared and the people are worse off than they were when it burdened the treasury vaults.

News comes from the state of Washington that Populists who have been elected treasurers of several counties are unable to qualify because they cannot find persons willing to go on their bonds. The crazy financial schemes of the Populist party are not such as to inspire the confidence of business men in the populist ability to manage the finances of the public.

The next little partisan plan to slice a new and solid Republican county of Logan has been planted, but it has received a backer by premature exposure.—Register.

Does the Register know that the people of Logan voted almost unanimously for a division of the county, and that the bill creating the new county has been unanimously reported by the senate committee?

The people of the whole country will extend sympathy to Vice President Stevenson on the death of his daughter, which event occurred yesterday. Miss Stevenson was a charming young lady who had endeared herself to all who knew her, and her loss will be sincerely mourned, especially in Washington.

The present Congress might try to pass a safe. It has failed in all its efforts to pass anything else.—Cheney's Commercial-Gazette.

The C.-G.'s ignorance of the characteristics of congressmen is astonishing. They are not in the habit of passing anything which may possibly keep on hand liquid refreshments.

The bill providing that all executions of the death penalty shall be made privately at the state penitentiary ought to pass. There are many arguments to be urged in its favor, not the least of which is that public hangings are demoralizing in their effect.

The Republican bosses' claim of a partisan victory is nonsense and insulting to the people's intelligence, for there is no reason why the Democratic ticket should not be elected in every ward and good business reasons why it should be.—Register.

And of course if "the Democratic ticket is elected in every ward" it will not be a "partisan victory." Oh, no!

A CHICAGO grand jury has decided that a man's shoes are deadly weapons. This will serve as a warning to indignant papas who make frequent use of these weapons in ejecting objectionable lovers from the house.

It is not thought that the resignation of Secretary Carlisle, of the treasury, would bring about a cabinet crisis, but there is a strong belief that it would be gratifying to the country.

The return of Shelby M. Cullom to the United States senate from Illinois is another one of the good things that have happened lately.

The legislature has got down to work in great shape.

The Virginia Debt.

The INTELLIGENCER of yesterday contained a dispatch from this city on the subject of the resolution passed Tuesday by the lower house, on the subject of the Virginia debt, which is sensible and well timed. This is not a party question and should be met on broad grounds, with a high sense of state honor, business integrity, and our own self interest, always kept in view.

West Virginia has never attempted to repudiate any just obligation. Her integrity stands unimpaired before the world; and patriots and statesmen must let no opportunity for preserving our splendid reputation escape.

On the other hand, we must be jealous of our own rights and sure of the ground upon which we stand. The resolutions of the state of Virginia appointing the commission; unfortunately have been construed to mean that state arbitrarily sets apart one-third of her debt for us to pay. To this we can never assent, and if we understand the resolution of the house of delegates passed Tuesday, this feature furnishes the objection to any action being taken now.

If Virginia wants West Virginia to act in this matter she must leave all questions open. Our liability and its amount must be the subject of conference, with nothing to bind this state, except the Wheeling ordinance and the state constitutions of 1863 and 1872. West Virginia has always stood ready to settle equitably and fairly—we are bound to take this position or repudiate.

The constitution of the state and the original act creating us as a state, bound us to ascertain what this indebtedness is, and having discovered, to pay it. If we flatly refuse to do this, it is repudiation and dishonor. But at the same time, Virginia must let us have a full voice in everything relating to the settlement. If Virginia's commission puts itself in the proper shape to meet us openly and freely, West Virginia, without regard to party, is willing to negotiate. We have never seen a repudiator in the state.

HON. S. B. ELKINS.

Point Pleasant Gazette.

West Virginia may be and will be proud of her Republican senator. His name is a household word throughout the nation. His influence in the senate will be equal to that of any other man in that distinguished body. His opinion and his words will be deferred to as much, as often and as widely as those of any other man in the nation, and any legislative matter in which the people of this state may be interested, will have for its advocate a man who is the peer, in point of ability and influence, of any member of the United States senate, and far above the average United States senator.

First for Twenty-five Years.

Hon. S. B. Elkins is the first Republican United States senator from this state for twenty-five years and he is in every way worthy of the distinction. He is an able orator, he is an experienced party organizer, he is a statesman; his private and political life bear an honorable record; and his interests in West Virginia are a sufficient pledge that he will do all in his power to promote the best interests of our state. West Virginia has honored herself and her legislature is to be congratulated upon its wise choice and prompt action.

Has No Superior.

The charge so often made by his enemies that he is not a West Virginian has no weight with those who are the real friends of the state of West Virginia. The best West Virginians are those who do the most for West Virginia, and measured by this standard he has no superior in the state. Loyal West Virginians are proud of Hon. Stephen B. Elkins as their fellow citizen, and they will be proud of him as their representative in the senate of the United States.

An Honor to the State.

The state of West Virginia honors itself by electing Hon. Stephen B. Elkins to the United States senate. Mr. Elkins is a ripe scholar and a man of distinguished ability and will rank among the best in the body to which he has been chosen. He was an intimate associate of the late James G. Blaine, a thorough Republican and a successful business man. The progressive state of West Virginia will be heard from in the next Congress.

Will Be in the Front Rank.

Mr. Elkins deserves the senatorship and the Republican caucus recognized the fact by giving him the nomination unanimously. We predict that no man ever entered the senate and took a place in the front rank quicker than Mr. Elkins will. By his ability he has taken front rank among the business men of the nation. He is thoroughly conversant with every phase of national politics and an indefatigable worker and hustler.

Will Protect State Interests.

West Virginia is now to be represented in the United States senate by a man who knows how to take care of his own district first and against the world, and he is the man who is going to vote for the best interests of the people, first, last and all the time.

A Senator to be Proud of.

West Virginia will have cause to feel proud of her Republican senator, and so will the United States.

WHAT THEY ALL SAY.

Beautiful Women Give Some Wonderful Information Concerning Female Beauty. We do Not Think it Will Take Women Long to Act Upon This Idea.

The poet and philosopher, Ralph Waldo Emerson, says:

"If eyes were made for seeing,
Then beauty is its own excuse for being."

Beauty of feature and elegance of form have ever been the desire of the feminine mind. And it is a perfectly laudable and natural ambition. Women are born to sway the hearts and minds of men as much by their beauty and attractiveness, as by the subtler charms of goodness and purity.

And yet, how few women attain the beauty which should be theirs, and in those few who are beautiful, how quickly their beauty fades! This is wrong. Women are naturally beautiful—at least of pleasing and attractive appearance—and in nearly all the cases where women lack those physical charms, the fault is their own.

Good looks and beautiful forms are entirely dependent upon good health. One must have strong nerves and pure blood to be beautiful. Failing to have tion I will willingly, cheerfully, and promptly respond."

Miss Della T. Shea, of 210 Lexington street, East Boston, Mass., makes the following statement:

"About seven years ago I began to feel very uncomfortable after eating, so much so that I found it impossible to keep the lightest food on my stomach. I grew worse for three months, so I was obliged to give up work and go to the hospital."

"I tried many remedies and doctors, but they did me no good. A friend advised me to try Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy."

"I began using it, and after a week felt much better. When I had taken four bottles the weakness in my stomach was all gone, and I could eat anything without distress, while a short time before I found it impossible for weeks at a time to even drink a glass of milk and keep it in my stomach."

"It was unable to wear anything but a loose dress, and I did not go out of the house for months at a time. I am now cured of my troubles and am well and strong. My cure is wonderful. Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy has done what the hospitals, doctors and other medicines could not do."

"It is a splendid medicine, and I urge every suffering person to use it. I love to think of the good it is doing, and wish everyone who is not perfectly well would take it."

Miss Rose McCarthy, of 347 East Eighty-seventh street, these is to fail of good looks and fine figure, and the woman who becomes broken in health, even in the slightest degree, will see her beauty gradually fade.

The moment women realize this, that moment will they understand that physical beauty is a matter within their own control. And just how it is, so, is told by Mrs. Frances Lytle, of 2 Hunter avenue, Rochester, N. Y.:

"I was very pale and delicate," she says, "and had no color, and had female weakness with leucorrhoea, and suffered great pain at my periods. I am now well, thanks to Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. My face is plump and my cheeks red, and my complexion pure when I began the use of this remedy, I only weighed 81 pounds and now I weigh 115 pounds and am still gaining. Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy is a wonderful medicine. I have not had any trouble since I began taking it."

Miss Emma Marlett, of Oxford, N. Y., says:

"I have been a sufferer for ten years, and the victim of a large tumor weighing twenty pounds, which I had removed, and I suffered untold agony for many months after."

"I tried the skill of many physicians, all of whom utterly failed to give me any relief."

"I then used that wonderful medicine, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and after using a few bottles I was entirely cured."

"To those who have been suffering from various diseases, and have failed to find any relief, I am, to-day, a living testimony and witness to the wonderful and marvelous curative powers of this great medicine. To persons suffering from various diseases, I earnestly recommend the use of this remedy, if they would be cured. For further information."

BREAKFAST BUDGET.

If eaten while it is still frozen or before it has thawed out the orange is good and retains its natural taste, but otherwise the juices from the seed and from the rind become mixed with those of the interior, and so the taste is spoiled.

Ear piercing has so much gone out of fashion now that special devices to enable women to wear earrings without submitting to the drill have some vogue. They bear the trade name of our vases and cost 25 or 50 a pair.

An inquest has been held in Birmingham, England, on the body of a girl of seventeen, whose death was attributed to drinking vinegar and other compounds for the purpose of making herself thinner and paler.

Hothouse strawberries from New Jersey, now in the New York market, sell at $3 a basket. The fruit is large, perfect and beautiful, but the baskets are small; they run about fourteen berries to the basket.

Franklin county, Me., has a woman Nimrod who delights in winter hunting. She is an expert in killing foxes, and can travel as many miles in a day on snowshoes as any man in that region.

Mrs. Helen Johnson, of Wellsville, N. Y., saved money to get into the Buffalo Home for Old Ladies. She is old and blind. Her banker failed and she is in the poor-house.

Adolph Freitsch, the Milwaukee man who crossed the Atlantic in a sailboat, now proposes to attempt a voyage across the Pacific to Australia, stopping only at Honolulu.

At Bennington, Kan., a woman climbed down the sides of a thirty-foot well after a tin milk pan which had dropped in, secured the pan and climbed out.

In London nearly 264 streets are named after the queen, while there are 241 Cross streets, 240 Albert streets, 212 Church streets and 191 Queen streets.

The only two civilized countries in the world in which a white man is not permitted to acquire civil rights or own property are Liberia and Hayti.

The smallest salary paid to the head of a civilized government is $15 a year to the president of the republic of Andorra, in the Pyrenees.

New York city's not funded debt is now $104,078,820. The not funded debt of the city increased $3,316,413 30 during the year 1894.

RHEUMATISM is primarily caused by acidity of the blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies the blood, and thus cures the disease.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

New York City, writes as follows: "For a long time I was troubled with nervousness and violent headaches. I would lie awake nearly all night, and was in constant misery. Previous to this my complexion was a very healthy color, but now it became very bad."

"I took three bottles of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and was entirely cured. My nervousness and headaches left me, my good complexion returned, and I slept perfectly. I can safely say to everybody who is suffering, just give it a trial, and you will be cured. I hope my statement will find relief for many people who do not know the benefit of such a wonderful medicine."

It is thus evident that women can get well—can secure perfect health, strong nerves and pure blood by using the great vital restorative, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. If, therefore, women will maintain their health and strength by this remarkable medicine, we will guarantee them beauty of face and form, the bright eyes, pink cheeks and clear complexion of youth, and the rounded form, graceful lines and elastic step of vigorous physical development.

This remedy can be used without hesitation by all, as it is purely vegetable and is endorsed and prescribed by physicians; indeed, it is the prescription and discovery of our most successful physician in curing nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 West Fourteenth street, New York City, who can be consulted at any time, without charge, personally or by letter.
